AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

For all the purposes of a Family Physic,

CURING

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach and Breath, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Inflammation, Eruptions, and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill and Purifying the Blood, are the most congenial purgative yet perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel all other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disorded organ into action; and they impart health and tone to the whole being. They cure not only the every day complaints of every body, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most skilful physicians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens, send certificates of cures performed and of great benefits they have derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take; and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.

Walt. Whitman, the Good Gray Poet, is the Washington correspondent of the Graphic. His letters, like his poetry, are formed on an entirely new and original model. They mix observation and descriptive rhapsody in a fashion to delight the heart of the man who declared that "truth is greater than facts." Mrs. Stowe remarks that Sam. Lawson, who had a supreme talent for collecting information, was born a century too soon. He should have lived in our era and been a reporter for the press. So Walt. Whitman was evidently designed by nature for some nobler vocation than writing ridiculous stuff and calling it poetry. He should have been born in the New Jerusalem and written accounts of it for the daily papers, he has such an eye for color and so profound an ignorance of politics.

We hope the editor of the World won't take it too much to heart that Talmage has prayed for him in public. We know of no one who needs praying more than does the man of the Marble heart. Besides the World is the first and chief of that infernal trinity whose remaining members are the Flesh and the Devil; against all of them we are incited to watch and pray. We agree entirely with our contemporary as to the bad taste, not to say irreverence, of making a prayer the medium of a little personal spite and "talk-back." Such a prayer will hardly be audited in the court of heaven. At the same time the World man should not have made a justifiable criticism of a clergyman's sermon the vehicle of a personal assault, as he did a few days since upon Mr. Talmage. Let us stop quarreling and sing something.

Abating.

The war fever, like most irrational gushes of sentiment, is abating. In fact it never spread very far beyond the circle of a certain inflammable element in the population of New York city. Even in that volatile hive people are beginning to see that a war with Spain would be a much more serious thing than was at first thought of. Of our ultimate victory over that nation there could be no great doubt, but that victory would unquestionably cost us every cent of the six hundred millions which we have paid of our war debt. In other words we should be at the conclusion of our little fuss with Spain, as to money matters, about where we were in 1865. Does the country like that prospect? The working people and small traders, some of whom have been so eager for war for a few days past, have tho't that war would make things lively, money plenty, trade active, manufactures brisk, and bring around again the flush times of our first avalanche of greenbacks. No doubt it would, but what would be the end of it all? Why, more penury, higher prices, and another panic. Another consideration ought to be set forth here and now. Spain did not sign the agreement, as we did, not to employ privateers in war. It follows that if our dispute comes to bloodshed, Spain will be violating no obligation between her and us, if she launches at our commerce all the freebooters of the world armed with letters of marque from Madrid. In less than one year from the commencement of the contest not a pound of goods would float in American bottoms in an. sea. Are we prepared for that? But. "national honor," you know? Yes, we do know, and are not disposed to be behind anybody in vindicating it. There remains, however, the settlement of that very question, "How far is our national honor involved in this matter?" When that is determined, not sooner, will war be even a discussable proposition.

Girls and Study.

Dr. Clarke, who wrote that sensational book on the education of woman, has come to grief. He has been unlucky enough to cross the path of Mrs. Dall, who has taken the Doctor in hand and completely demolished him. We have no interest in the gentleman's defeat beyond a satisfaction in the disproof of his strictures respecting the health of the young lady students in Vassar College. Mrs. Dall shows with conclusive force than no brain-labor enforced in that institution is necessarily injurious to our girls. The students there are, in Mrs. Dall's opinion, decidedly more athletic and generally wholesome than is the average young female of the farmhouse. Besides, on general principles, this lady asserts than this generation of men need as much repair and reconstruction as their wives, mothers and daughters. She says without apparent hesitation that a majority of inherited diseases are traceable to bad health in fathers as a result of bad habits. And we suspect that a strict investigation followed by an honest report of the facts would tend to justify her position. Girls can endure as much study as boys; in addition to which they are noticeably quicker of comprehension. By the way, is it not almost time that old humbug of a notion that mental work is, per se, more damaging than physical was exploded? It is not mental labor, but the dissipation which accompanies and degrades it, that kills. Brain-work of itself is the easiest and most natural of all forms of exertion. Complicated with late hours, tobacco, and rum it is sometimes a little wearing. When a young lady is said to have died of mental toil, let the marble man carve on her tombstone, "Here lies, etc., a victim to tight lacing, poor novels, love scrapes and unregulated emotion."

Teas and Teetotalers.

Some awful revelations are about to dawn upon us as to the adulterations to which the article of tea has been for years subjected in China. The bloated devotee of whiskey is going to have his innings. For a length of time whereof the memory of man runneth not to the contrary the temperance reformers have had this latter gentleman at their mercy; and their tender mercies toward him have been indeed cruel. They have captured numberless specimens of his favorite alcoholic beverages and reduced them to their primitive elements by the severest tests of modern chemistry. They have dragged the lurking poisons forth to light. They have triumphantly and indignantly pointed to those forms of death hitherto concealed in liquor, which are worse than the inherent damnation of the pure distillation itself. "Behold," cried the scientifically-dramatic lecturers and sermonizers, "behold the quassia, the gentian, the wormwood, the gall, the capsicum, ginger, coriander, carraway, opium, cocculus-indicus, nux-vomica, tobacco, poppy, henbane, alum, sulphuric acid, molasses, sugar, treacle, and horrors without end, that flow adown the drinker's throat like a torrent of lava hot from Tartarus and reeking with the fumes of hell—behold and tremble!" What could the poor inebriate reply to this terrific indictment of "the bowl?" If he had been a man of the microscope he would have referred Mr. Gough and his co-talkers to the insect world which inhabits a glass of water and asked what must be the intestinal condition of that man who makes water his constant tap; darkly hinting that a stomach whose average contents is a pint of Bourbon could not be much worse off than another which is made the graveyard of a billion little animals every day. But then our typical toper, not having this crushing answer handy in his argumentative quiver, comforted himself with another horn of old rye. Now, however, is his opportunity. Let him tell the tale of tea. Tea is a strictly temperance drink. Bishops and "other clergy" do not generally except to it, and goody-goody female saints dote upon it. Its fumes, when it is preparing, excite their imagination, and actually to drink it over biscuits and butter! ah, that ecstacy antedates certain nobler joys which these gossiping ladies believe are reserved for them far beyond this world of sin and sensual excess. Some peripatetic "Battle Axe of Temperance" yells like a Comanche and gesticulates like a dancing dervish through a two hours' evening performance, to the boundless edification and delight of the small boys in the gallery, and then goes home with his admiring entertainer. He is warm and fagged with his efforts to protect the virtuous and rescue the fallen (none of whom were there to hear him) and he must refresh himself with a gentle stimulant. So he soaks his Boanergian bowels with three cups of green tea. The blessed man. What would he say if knew that his presomnolent draught was only one suspicion better than a regular California "night-cap?" Yet it is true, pitifully true, that tea is poison; and not a quarter of what is sold in the market for Oolong, Young Hyson, English Breakfast, and so forth, is worthy the confidence of a pious and law-abiding community. Those almond-eyed Orientals amid the far fields of China and Japan; where could they have learned so many tricks that are vain? Yet they have practiced this part of humbug on civilized and enlightened (sic) nations for many years. They mix more things in our evening temperance cups than are dreamed of in our philosophy. They send us chests of "doctored" willow leaves, and it is seriously alleged by grave and erudite Commissioners who have been to China to look into this thing, that hardly a deciduous tree grows in the Flowery Land but is curled and colored for our markets and flavored to our taste. This too, notwithstanding the most conspicuous and intelligible hieroglyphics on each delicately-packed invoice assure us of the integrity of the odorous contents. Tu doces, thou tea-chest us to have less and less faith in the picturesque heathen whom the missionary societies have been so long trying to convert to better ways. Ours is surely no common trouble; we are steeped in a pot of woe. Whiskey we must not, tea we ought not, water we will not, drink. Coffee, you suggest? Dear soul, there is not a decent cup of coffee made in the State of New York once a week; nor anywhere else this side of Arabia.

In attempting to cross the Big Walnut Creek the horse got beyond its depth and was drowned. THE COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY.

His Suggestions Regarding Interest on Deposits.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The forthcoming report of the Comptroller of the Currency will contain the following on the subject of interest on deposits and certification of checks:

In my last annual report I referred briefly to the evils resulting from the payment of interest upon deposits, and my predecessors have frequently referred more at length to the same subject. The difficulty has been that the proposed legislation by Congress upon this subject would apply only to the national banks. The effect of such legislation would be to bring state banks and savings banks organized by authority of the different states in direct competition with the national banks in securing the accounts of correspondents and dealers. The national banks will be desirous of retaining this business and the more unscrupulous would not hesitate to evade the law by offering to make collections throughout the country free of charge, to buy and sell stocks without commissions and to rediscount paper at low rates. The proposed action of the Clearing House in the city of New York if adopted by the clearing houses of the principal cities of the Union, would do more to prevent the payment of interest on deposits than any congressional enactment.

But the evils resulting from the payment of interest upon deposits are by no means confined to the city banks. It may be safely said that this custom, which prevails in almost every city and village of the Union, has done more than any other to demoralize the business of banking. State banks, private banks and associations under the guise of savings banks everywhere offer rates of interest upon deposits which cannot safely be paid by those engaged in legitimate business. National banks desirous of retaining the business of their dealers also make similar offers, and the result is not only an increase of the rates of interest paid by business men, but as a consequence investments in secured loans, bringing ultimate loss, both upon the shareholders of the bank and the depositors.

The kind of legislation needed is that which shall apply to all banks and bankers alike, whether organized under the national currency act or otherwise. A law prohibiting the payment of interest on deposits by the national banks will have little effect unless followed by similar legislation under authority of the different states, and there is little hope that such legislation can be obtained. The national currency act, which was passed during the war, provided for a tax of one half of one per cent. upon all deposits, and subsequent internal revenue legislation extended this tax to all deposits made with state banks and individual bankers. This was essentially a war tax and should in my judgment be repealed, with other similar internal revenue taxation, and I recommend, if legislation is proposed on this subject, that the law be so amended as to repeal this tax so far as it applies to demand deposits and that an increased rate of taxation be imposed uniformly upon all deposits which either directly or indirectly are placed with banks or bankers with the offer or expectation of receiving interest. Such legislation, if rigidly enforced, will have the effect not only to reduce the rate of interest throughout the country, but will at the same time prevent the illegitimate organization of savings banks, the organization of which should be allowed only upon the condition that the savings of the people shall be carefully and prudently invested and the interest arising therefrom, after deducting reasonable expenses, distributed from time to time to the depositors and to no other persons whosoever.

The act of March 3d, 1869, authorizes the appointment of a receiver if any officer, clerk or agent of any national bank shall certify any check drawn upon said bank unless the person or company drawing said check shall have on deposit in said bank at the time said check is certified an amount of money equal to the amount specified in such check. Receivers have been appointed for the National Bank of the Commonwealth of New York and the New Orleans Banking Association during the past year for violations of this act, and it is the intention of the Comptroller hereafter to rigidly enforce this act whenever he is satisfied of such violation.

CUBAN AFFAIRS

THE WAR CLOUD DIMINISHING.

NAVAL PREPARATIONS, HOWEVER, STILL ACTIVE.

No War Just Yet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—A Washington special says the Secretary of the Navy yesterday directed orders to be issued to suspend work on the iron-clads, and to detach from the large vessels recently ordered into commission all officers, to await further orders. The transportation of ordnance stores to Key West will also be stopped. There is no possibility, it is said, of settling the diplomatic controversy between Spain and the United States for many months to come, which accounts for the orders for retrenchment. The order for the formation of a battalion of marines has been countermanded.

A CABINET MEETING IN MADRID.

MADRID, Nov. 25.—A Cabinet council was held yesterday, at which a note to be sent to the government of the United States was under consideration. It is denied that the Spanish government is disposed to submit the Virginius question to the emperor of Germany for arbitration.

A CONTRADICTION FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The Construction Bureau of the Navy Department says if work at any of the navy-yards has been suspended it is not because of orders from Washington. It was only to-day that orders were sent from the Bureau to make some additional repairs on the Colorado at New York. The Roanoke is not intended for the North Atlantic Squadron, but for the mouth of the harbor, and as for the Dictator, there was very little work remaining to be done to her.

SENTIMENTS OF A HAVANA PAPER.

HAVANA, Nov. 25.—The Diario de la Marina has an editorial to-day of which the following is an extract: The Washington government knows to-day and the United States Congress will know to-morrow the justice with which the Spanish authorities have acted. They will take care of the national honor without suffering themselves to be influenced by the cries of the masses, who do not know what these Cuban patriots are. Far from our minds be the feeling of arrogance, farther still the feeling of debility from our hearts. We neither seek nor shun peril. If the Americans oblige us to fight, fight we will. If the mother country can aid us we will thank her, but if we must contend alone there are enough Spaniards in Cuba to keep our banner safe. We will sell very dearly that which was once the most brilliant flower of the crown of Castile.

The funeral of the late Count San Fernando took place to-day. The murderer committed suicide in prison last night by taking poison.

WORK AT THE BROOKLYN NAVY-YARD.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Twenty-five hundred men were paid at the navy-yard to-day, most of whom have been employed since the Virginius outrage.

The Spanish iron-clad Arapiles has not left the yard yet, but was painted to-day and the last work upon her in the dry dock will be done to-morrow. Everything in the yard was going on as usual this afternoon, although several reports stated that there had been orders stopping work.

THE SITUATION AT WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The Cabinet was in session only about two hours to-day. All the members were present except Secretary Robeson, who is in Philadelphia in connection with naval prepartions. The Spanish question was debated, but no additional facts presented by the Secretary of State, nor was any new action taken relative to the subject. This government will act toward Spain as toward all other countries in cases of controversy and await with proper respect replies to our complaints. There is, however, anxiety expressed for intelligence from Spain of a decisive character in order that Congress may in the President's message be made acquainted with the fact.

THE JUDGE OF THE VIRGINIUS VICTIMS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—It appears that Lieut. Commander Autran, who commanded the Spanish war steamer Rozan at Aspinwall last spring when commander Reed of the United States navy escorted the Virginius out of that harbor, was the Judge Advocate at the recent summary trial and condemnation to death of the crew and passengers of the Virginius at Santiago de Cuba.

ACTIVITY AT THE WASHINGTON NAVY-YARD.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Orders were received at the Washington navy-yard this morning to fit the Shawmut for sea with all possible despatch. All the men that can be employed to advantage will be put to work night and day. The Fortune was launched this morning and will be ready for sea in a few days. She will carry two thirty pound rifled guns in addition to her torpedo attachment.

IMPORTANT DISPATCHES RECEIVED.

There are indications that dispatches were received to-night by both Secretary Fish and Admiral Polo, the Spanish Minister, from Madrid of a character which gives more than heretofore promise of a peaceful solution of the present complications, and it is known that these gentlemen were in private conference for several hours to-night at the residence of Fish comparing dispatches and discussing generally the situation of affairs. It was remarked to-night by a gentleman prominently connected with this government that things look far more hopeful now than ever.

NO SUSPENSION OF PREPARATIONS AT PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25.—So far as the Philadelphia navy-yard is concerned no orders have as yet been received for a suspension of work. On the contrary the work in hand is not only being pushed to completion but fresh orders have been received. To-day Admiral Porter made a tour of inspection among the vessels at the yard and a dispatch was received ordering the dispatch boat Pinta to proceed immediately to sea.

PUSHING WORK AT THE CARTRIDGE MANUFACTORY.

BOSTON, Nov. 25.—The United States Cartridge Co. commences this week to run their works day and night with two sets of men. They have pressing orders for several millions of cartridges from the War and Navy Departments.

THE PHELPS DEFALCATION.

Mr. Warren's Report.

ALBANY, Nov. 25.—The following is the official synopsis prepared for the Evening Journal of the final report made by Mr. Warren, who was called to examine the accounts of the State Treasurer after the defalcation by Phelps was discovered. It exhibits the exact amount of money taken by Phelps, the defaulting clerk, the time at which the theft was perpetrated, and the false entries in the Treasurer's books with a view to cover up his frauds. The report is a very voluminous one, and is illustrated by numerous tabular statements; and we are, therefore, only able to lay before our readers a synopsis of it. It will be sent to the Legislature by the Governor at the opening of the session.

The whole amount taken by Phelps is $301,771.89.

The 31st of July, 1873, was the last day when the Treasurer's deposits and cash on hand belonging to the General Fund were shown to agree with the Comptroller's books. The whole amount abstracted, as above stated, occurred between that day and the 16th of October, 1873, "and it was done by withholding moneys received from day to day in "drafts and currency from deposit and appropriating the same, or in other words "stealing it."

The amount stolen in the month of August was	$200,000 00
The residue stolen in the month of September was	101,771 89
	$301,771 89

In the Cash Book were entered the following deposits, for which no corresponding credits can be found in the accounts of the deposit banks:

1873—Aug. 2, Cash Book,	folio 36		$50,000 00
" " 6,	"	"	48,500 00
" " 7,	"	"	67,877 69
" " 2,	"	"	33,622 31
			$200,000 00

The entries of these items of pretended deposits do not specify the banks in which they were alleged to be deposited. Nor were any such items to be found in the Bank Ledger. But there is an entry in said Ledger (folio 131) under date of August 30, 1873, to the debit of the Mechanics' and Farmers' Bank, Albany, of $200,000; but no corresponding credit is found in the pass book account of that bank or any other of the deposit banks.

In regard to the pass-book of the deposit banks Mr. Warren says: "While the pass-books have always, or usually been written up every month, and the cancelled checks returned to the Treasurer, I find that the very important duty of examining and comparing them has not been properly performed, the person whose business it was and who was relied upon by the Treasurer to attend to it (C. H. Phelps) having wholly neglected it or failed to performed it in a proper manner for more than a year past, a fact which has been developed by the examination, and which has caused a delay of more than two weeks in completing the same."

The next question solved by Mr. Warren is, "Who stole the money?" He states that Mr. Phelps from the time of his appointment had the entire charge of the money received and deposited from day to day, and kept the account of receipts, the cash account and the bank accounts; that although theoretically subordinate to the Deputy Treasurer he exercised almost entire control of all the cash transactions; that the absence of the Treasurer for much the greater part of the time, according to the custom of his predecessors in office, and the absence of the Deputy, caused by a long and severe illness, afforded Mr. Phelps every opportunity of carrying out his purpose; that having, like his predecessors in office, assumed the title of "Cashier," to which he had no legal right, he began to endorse for deposit drafts drawn in favor of the Treasurer thus: "Pay to E. A. Groesbeck, Esq., Cashier; State Treasurer, per C. H. Phelps, Cashier;" that although this was objected to by both the Treasurer and his Deputy, the bank was not notified not to recognize such endorsements; that having in that way familiarized the officers of the National Commercial Bank with his said pretended official signature, he ventured on the experiment of sending to New York drafts remitted to the Treasurer in payment of the state taxes, &c., endorsed in that manner, and was successful, though they were passed through a house of questionable repute.

Mr. Warren concludes this part of his report thus: "In view of the foregoing it seems very evident that the man who committed the great crime, not only against the State, but against his benefactor, the Treasurer, who had so implicitly trusted him, was Charles H. Phelps. I find nothing to show or lead me to suspect that either the Treasurer, Deputy Treasurer, or any of the clerks in the office either connived at, or had any knowledge or suspicion of what was going on."

In the course of his examination, Mr. Warren discovered and pointed out several practices which he condemns as unauthorized and illegal. Among them is that of making temporary loans and advances to various public officers and clerks in and about the State Hall on their monthly salaries (to use his words) "as has long been the practice heretofore." These advances and loans he states to have amounted on the 16th of October, 1873, to $4,547.29.

Mr. Warren also refers to a practice which has existed for several years, and for which the state officers are in nowise responsible, of using the moneys belonging to the Sinking Funds for the expenses of the government. It is proper to say that this practice commenced years ago, and is the fault of the legislature, which, unwilling to incur the odium of levying taxes in sufficient amount to meet extravagant appropriations, authorized a temporary use of the moneys belonging to the Sinking Funds. These deficient appropriations and their consequences were pointed out in the Comptroller's last annual report; and the use of the Sinking Fund moneys for such purposes was referred to and condemned in pointed terms by the Governor in his annual message as a violation of the faith of the State. The Comptroller, since the last session of the legislature, though having four millions of state bonds to redeem, has nevertheless invested more than three millions belonging to the Sinking Funds in permanent securities, and before the ending of another year will go very far toward the complete correction of this public wrong.

The Journal says: Although other irregularities in the Treasury Department are pointed out by Mr. Warren, they are not of such a nature, in the opinion of the Governor, as to warrant the exercise of the power confided to him by the Constitution of removing the Treasurer from office.

He will, we have no doubt, take such notice in his message to the legislature of these various irregularities as to place the responsibility where it belongs and lead to proper measures for their correction.

METROPOLITAN NEWS.

Bidding for the City Stocks.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Notwithstanding the large amount of city stocks for which bids were to be opened to-day, there were but two bids made, one for $2,000 at one-quarter per cent. premium of the consolidated city stock and $100,000 of Croton water main stock at par, making $102,000 bid made for the $2,717,000 offered.

CELEBRATING EVACUATION DAY.

The flags on the City Hall and on nearly all the buildings on Broadway, as well as on the vessels in port, were displayed to-day in honor of the ninetieth anniversary of the departure of the British army from New York. Mayor Havemeyer reviewed the Seventh Regiment in front of the City Hall this afternoon and the veterans of 1812 partook of a banquet at the Sixth Regiment armory.

SALUTING THE COLORS.

THE ACTION OF THE CLEARING HOUSE.

The Post says of to-day's action of the Clearing House:

"The results of the meeting were the defeat of the old Committee of Nine and the attempt to make the Clearing House a central power, having legislative functions. It is now left with each bank to manage its own business and to abide by the results of such management."

CLOSING OF NAVIGATION BETWEEN NEW YORK AND ALBANY.

Navigation of the Hudson River from this city to Albany is suspended, the steamers going into winter quarters to-day. This is the earliest closing of navigation during the present century.

A HEAVY AND FRAUDULENT FAILURE.

It is stated the discovery was made late last night that G. B. Lichtenbergh of Detroit, in the tobacco trade here on Pearl street, had bought $300,000 worth of goods in bond on credit, transferred them in bond, sold them for cash and failed. His business here was carried on by a man named Simpson, formerly of Albany, who is alleged to have drawn over $50,000 cash last Friday from the Traders' Bank and has not been seen since. Twenty of the creditors held a meeting to-day, who have each been victimized from $20,000 to $1,000, and measures were taken to recover their property. Simpson, however, has gone to Europe. A Hartford tobacco merchant was victimized out of $60,000.

STOCK and MONEY MARKET.

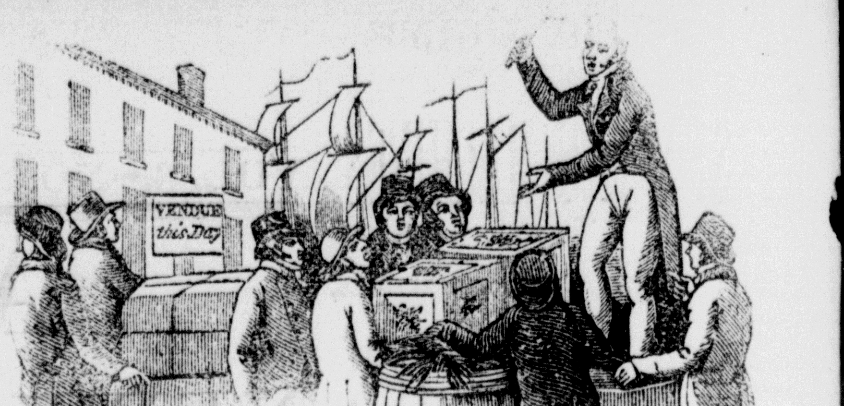

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.

Money closed at 7 gold. Sterling heavy and lower at 7@7½ for 60 days and 8¾@9 for sight. Customs receipts $329,000. Gold closed at 9⅛ after selling at 9⅛@9⅜; the advance to the latter figure being caused by the report that the Secretary of the Navy was visiting the navy-yard and hurrying work on vessels of war. Loans were at 3-16, 1-32, 7 and 7 gold; final rate was 7. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $260,000. Clearings $48,000,000. Governments quiet and steady. State bonds nominal. Railway and miscellaneous speculation was strong and higher at an advance of ⅛ to 3⅞ per cent. until late in the day, when a reaction of ⅛ to 1⅛ per cent. took place. At the final close there was a steadier feeling again; the volume of business was large, particularly in Western Union, New York Central, Lake Shore, Pacific, Wabash and Northwest common. The buoyancy in stocks was occasioned by a telegram from Washington that both the President and Secretary of the Treasury would recommend to Congress that the $40,000,000 reserve be made a part of the permanent circulation of the country and also a report that the Grinnell matter had been privately adjusted. The Chairman of the Clearing House Association appointed the following new committee in place of the committee of nine. The report of the old committee will be referred to them: W. H. Kitchen, Park Bank; H. F. Vail, Commerce; D. C. Hayes, Union; Richard Berry, Tradesmen's; Geo. W. Duer, State of New York; John Costree, Irving; James Buell, Importers' and Traders'; F. Chandler, Mechanics' Banking Association; C. M. Jourdan, Third Avenue National; O. H. Schreiver, German American.

The Daily Freeman.

Kingston, Wednesday Morning, Nov. 26.

Walt. Whitman, the Good Gray Poet, is the Washington correspondent of the Graphic. His letters, like his poetry, are formed on an entirely new and original model. They mix observation and descriptive rhapsody in a fashion to delight the heart of the man who declared that "truth is greater than facts." Mrs. Stowe remarks that Sam. Lawson, who had a supreme talent for collecting information, was born a century too soon. He should have lived in our era and been a reporter for the press. So Walt. Whitman was evidently designed by nature for some nobler vocation than writing ridiculous stuff and calling it poetry. He should have been born in the New Jerusalem and written accounts of it for the daily papers, he has such an eye for color and so profound an ignorance of politics.

We hope the editor of the World won't take it too much to heart that Talmage has prayed for him in public. We know of no one who needs praying more than does the man of the Marble heart. Besides the World is the first and chief of that infernal trinity whose remaining members are the Flesh and the Devil; against all of them we are incited to watch and pray. We agree entirely with our contemporary as to the bad taste, not to say irreverence, of making a prayer the medium of a little personal spite and "talk-back." Such a prayer will hardly be audited in the court of heaven. At the same time the World man should not have made a justifiable criticism of a clergyman's sermon the vehicle of a personal assault, as he did a few days since upon Mr. Talmage. Let us stop quarreling and sing something.

Abating.

The war fever, like most irrational gushes of sentiment, is abating. In fact it never spread very far beyond the circle of a certain inflammable element in the population of New York city. Even in that volatile hive people are beginning to see that a war with Spain would be a much more serious thing than was at first thought of. Of our ultimate victory over that nation there could be no great doubt, but that victory would unquestionably cost us every cent of the six hundred millions which we have paid of our war debt. In other words we should be at the conclusion of our little fuss with Spain, as to money matters, about where we were in 1865. Does the country like that prospect? The working people and small traders, some of whom have been so eager for war for a few days past, have tho't that war would make things lively, money plenty, trade active, manufactures brisk, and bring around again the flush times of our first avalanche of greenbacks. No doubt it would, but what would be the end of it all? Why, more penury, higher prices, and another panic. Another consideration ought to be set forth here and now. Spain did not sign the agreement, as we did, not to employ privateers in war. It follows that if our dispute comes to bloodshed, Spain will be violating no obligation between her and us, if she launches at our commerce all the freebooters of the world armed with letters of marque from Madrid. In less than one year from the commencement of the contest not a pound of goods would float in American bottoms in an. sea. Are we prepared for that? But, "national honor," you know? Yes, we do know, and are not disposed to be behind anybody in vindicating it. There remains, however, the settlement of that very question, "How far is our national honor involved in this matter?" When that is determined, not sooner, will war be even a discussable proposition.

Girls and Study.

Dr. Clarke, who wrote that sensational book on the education of woman, has come to grief. He has been unlucky enough to cross the path of Mrs. Dall, who has taken the Doctor in hand and completely demolished him. We have no interest in the gentleman's defeat beyond a satisfaction in the disproof of his strictures respecting the health of the young lady students in Vassar College. Mrs. Dall shows with conclusive force than no brain-labor enforced in that institution is necessarily injurious to our girls. The students there are, in Mrs. Dall's opinion, decidedly more athletic and generally wholesome than is the average young female of the farmhouse. Besides, on general principles, this lady asserts than this generation of men need as much repair and reconstruction as their wives, mothers and daughters. She says without apparent hesitation that a majority of inherited diseases are traceable to bad health in fathers as a result of bad habits. And we suspect that a strict investigation followed by an honest report of the facts would tend to justify her position. Girls can endure as much study as boys; in addition to which they are noticeably quicker of comprehension. By the way, is it not almost time that old humbug of a notion that mental work is, per se, more damaging than physical was exploded? It is not mental labor, but the dissipation which accompanies and degrades it, that kills. Brain-work of itself is the easiest and most natural of all forms of exertion. Complicated with late hours, tobacco, and rum it is sometimes a little wearing. When a young lady is said to have died of mental toil, let the marble-man carve on her tombstone, "Here lies, etc., a victim to tight lacing, poor novels, love scrapes and unregulated emotion."

Teas and Teetotalers.

Some awful revelations are about to dawn upon us as to the adulterations to which the article of tea has been for years subjected in China. The bloated devotee of whiskey is going to have his innings. For a length of time whereof the memory of man runneth not to the contrary the temperance reformers have had this latter gentleman at their mercy; and their tender mercies toward him have been indeed cruel. They have captured numberless specimens of his favorite alcoholic beverages and reduced them to their primitive elements by the severest tests of modern chemistry. They have dragged the lurking poisons forth to light. They have triumphantly and indignantly pointed to those forms of death hitherto concealed in liquor, which are worse than the inherent damnation of the pure distillation itself. "Behold," cried the scientifically-dramatic lecturers and sermonizers, "behold the quassia, the gentian, the wormwood, the gall, the capsicum, ginger, coriander, carraway, opium, cocculus-indicus, nux-vomica, tobacco, poppy, henbane, alum, sulphuric acid, molasses, sugar, treacle, and horrors without end, that flow adown the drinker's throat like a torrent of lava hot from Tartarus and reeking with the fumes of hell—behold and tremble!" What could the poor inebriate reply to this terrific indictment of "the bowl?" If he had been a man of the microscope he would have referred Mr. Gough and his co-talkers to the insect world which inhabits a glass of water and asked what must be the intestinal condition of that man who makes water his constant tap; darkly hinting that a stomach whose average contents is a pint of Bourbon could not be much worse off than another which is made the graveyard of a billion little animals every day. But then our typical toper, not having this crushing answer handy in his argumentative quiver, comforted himself with another horn of old rye. Now, however, is his opportunity. Let him tell the tale of tea. Tea is a strictly temperance drink. Bishops and "other clergy" do not generally except to it, and goody-goody female saints dote upon it. Its fumes, when it is preparing, excite their imagination, and actually to drink it over biscuits and butter! ah, that ecstacy antedates certain nobler joys which these gossiping ladies believe are reserved for them far beyond this world of sin and sensual excess. Some peripatetic "Battle Axe of Temperance" yells like a Comanche and gesticulates like a dancing dervish through a two hours' evening performance, to the boundless edification and delight of the small boys in the gallery, and then goes home with his admiring entertainer. He is warm and fagged with his efforts to protect the virtuous and rescue the fallen (none of whom were there to hear him) and he must refresh himself with a gentle stimulant. So he soaks his Boanergian bowels with three cups of green tea. The blessed man. What would he say if knew that his presomnolent draught was only one suspicion better than a regular California "night-cap?" Yet it is true, pitifully true, that tea is poison; and not a quarter of what is sold in the market for Oolong, Young Hyson, English Breakfast, and so forth, is worthy the confidence of a pious and law-abiding community. Those almond-eyed Orientals amid the far fields of China and Japan; where could they have learned so many tricks that are vain? Yet they have practiced this part of humbug on civilized and enlightened (sic) nations for many years. They mix more things in our evening temperance cups than are dreamed of in our philosophy. They send us chests of "doctored" willow leaves, and it is seriously alleged by grave and erudite Commissioners who have been to China to look into this thing, that hardly a deciduous tree grows in the Flowery Land but is curled and colored for our markets and flavored to our taste. This too, notwithstanding the most conspicuous and intelligible hieroglyphics on each delicately-packed invoice assure us of the integrity of the odorous contents. Tu doces, thou tea-chest us to have less and less faith in the picturesque heathen whom the missionary societies have been so long trying to convert to better ways. Ours is surely no common trouble; we are steeped in a pot of woe. Whiskey we must not, tea we ought not, water we will not, drink. Coffee, you suggest? Dear soul, there is not a decent cup of coffee made in the State of New York once a week; nor anywhere else this side of Arabia.

CURRENT TOPICS.

—Empress Eugenie has Nice winter quarters.

—Blaine will be re-elected Speaker without trouble. Now if Conkling would take that Chief Justiceship Blaine would be happy.

—Good Deacon Smith of Cincinnati has written a poem on the Cuban question. It raises the hair of everybody except bald-headed men.

—An acre of Cuban land will produce twelve times as much nutrition as the richest land in the United States. We can raise a debt on it without the least trouble.

—Mr. Creswell's proposition to make newspaper postage payable in advance is a very sensible one, and just as essential as the prepayment of letters.

—The Brooklyn Argus recklessly asserts that Secretary Fish has nothing to do with the color of President Grant's servant girl's hair. How does he know but she combs it with Fish's backbone?

—Governor Osborn of Kansas has appointed Robert Crozier to the vacant United States Senatorship caused by Caldwell's resignation. As Crozier is a "buzzum" friend of Caldwell the appointment looks rather "sing'lar."

—Is this the way the coming woman is to be treated? In Illinois, where a woman ran for a school office, her opponents electioneered against her by circulating filthy caricatures. Shame on Western chivalry.

—John G. Whittier has written a letter to Charles Sumner thanking him for his sensible words on the Cuban question. The men of sense are rapidly gaining ground on the vaporing crowd.

—Persons who sue railroad companies for damages out west are pretty sure to win their cases just now. In nearly all of the suits brought on account of ejections from trains because of lost tickets, etc., the complainants have won and recovered heavy damages.

—The public learns with regret of the transfer of the Atlantic and Young Folks from Field & Osgood, but Houghton with the former and Scribner with the latter will give no cause for complaint. Perhaps they will even show an improvement.

—We are right glad to know that both Vice President Wilson and Senator Sumner go to Washington in improved health. Now if the President will make Sumner Secretary of State the whole country will have cause to rejoice.

—How recklessly ship-owners trifle with human lives may be judged from the fact that one Liverpool ship-owner confesses to having lost nineteen vessels in eleven years. Plimsall's statements are being established by the daily condemnation and breaking up of hulks in different British ports.

—We are prepared for almost any kind of progress in this country, but when we find Quakers yielding to the spirit of the age we confess to a little surprise. At their Sabbath School conference in Lynn it was proposed to discard their "thees" and "thous" and introduce singing into their Sunday Schools.

—Among the candidates mentioned for Senator in place of Conkling the Albany Journal mentions Senator Morgan, Evarts, Pierrepont, Woodford, Tremain, Pruyn, Francis of Troy, Ellis H. Roberts, A. B. Cornell, M. I. Townsend, Judge James, A. D. White, Freeman Clarke, T. A. Alberger. Gen. Sharpe has also been mentioned. Nobody can complain of lack of material.

—Does anybody wonder that the Grange and other reform movements are popular out west? If so perhaps this list of defalcations in Iowa, published in a Des Moines paper, may enlighten him: "James D. Eads, State Superintendent of Schools, $150,000. James A. Bryan, Treasurer of Jackson county, $50,000. The Treasurer of Dubuque county, $35,000. The Treasurer of Decatur county, $12,000." The farmers have evidently made up their minds that it is time to stop this sort of thing.

—We give it up. We suppose the New York World meant something when it published the following sentence, but a half hour's study failed to enable us to see the point: "And the engineer who had lost one license and omitted to obtain another, who had nominal charge of it after in vain endeavoring to hire a gas-fitter who knew about engine-driving and loved his life well-enough to decline to be hired, hired a carpenter to exercise a nominal supervision over the boiler of which the immediate absence of supervision was undertaken by a small boy." Can the World's Fadover solve the conundrum?

MISCELLANEOUS NEWS.

—The Vicar of St. James's Church, Notting Hill, lately preached on "Death," causing such excitement and terror that several ladies were carried out fainting, and the services had to be stopped before the conclusion.

—There is a gigantic grape vine in a green-house near Windsor Castle. It is eighty-three years old, and last year is said to have had fifteen thousand clusters of grapes upon it, a yield equal to a vineyard of ordinary vines.

—Anna Dickinson, writing of the pleasures of a bath she took in Idaho, says, "You may laugh as much as you please, and say I have no business to gush at my age; but, girls, the delight of a bath in that Idaho water is very like the rapture you find in your lover's tenderest clasp. I've tried both, and I know."—To which the Rochester Democrat adds: Is it too much to say of the Idaho waters, after this, that they are a balm? Go west, young lady, go west.

HEAVY SNOW FALL IN CANADA.

A SHOCKING AFFAIR.

A Man and Woman Allowed to Drown by Lookers-on.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 25.—Yesterday afternoon F. M. Brandise and Emma Turner, agents for a sewing machine company in this city, left here with a horse and wagon to deliver a sewing machine to parties near Shadville in this county. In attempting to cross the Big Walnut Creek the horse got beyond its depth and was drowned. The man and woman clung to the wagon four hours, and though their struggles were witnessed by several persons on shore no very vigorous efforts were made to save them and just at dusk they disappeared from sight and were no doubt drowned.

THE COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY.

His Suggestions Regarding Interest on Deposits.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The forthcoming report of the Comptroller of the Currency will contain the following on the subject of interest on deposits and certification of checks:

In my last annual report I referred briefly to the evils resulting from the payment of interest upon deposits, and my predecessors have frequently referred more at length to the same subject. The difficulty has been that the proposed legislation by Congress upon this subject would apply only to the national banks. The effect of such legislation would be to bring state banks and savings banks organized by authority of the different states in direct competition with the national banks in securing the accounts of correspondents and dealers. The national banks will be desirous of retaining this business and the more unscrupulous would not hesitate to evade the law by offering to make collections throughout the country free of charge, to buy and sell stocks without commissions and to rediscount paper at low rates. The proposed action of the Clearing House in the city of New York, if adopted by the clearing houses of the principal cities of the Union, would do more to prevent the payment of interest on deposits than any congressional enactment.

But the evils resulting from the payment of interest upon deposits are by no means confined to the city banks. It may be safely said that this custom, which prevails in almost every city and village of the Union, has done more than any other to demoralize the business of banking. State banks, private banks and associations under the guise of savings banks everywhere offer rates of interest upon deposits which cannot safely be paid by those engaged in legitimate business. National banks desirous of retaining the business of their dealers also make similar offers, and the result is not only an increase of the rates of interest paid by business men, but as a consequence investments in secured loans, bringing ultimate loss, both upon the shareholders of the bank and the depositors.

The kind of legislation needed is that which shall apply to all banks and bankers alike, whether organized under the national currency act or otherwise. A law prohibiting the payment of interest on deposits by the national banks will have little effect unless followed by similar legislation under authority of the different states, and there is little hope that such legislation can be obtained. The national currency act, which was passed during the war, provided for a tax of one half of one per cent. upon all deposits, and subsequent internal revenue legislation extended this tax to all deposits made with state banks and individual bankers. This was essentially a war tax and should in my judgment be repealed, with other similar internal revenue taxation, and I recommend, if legislation is proposed on this subject, that the law be so amended as to repeal this tax so far as it applies to demand deposits and that an increased rate of taxation be imposed uniformly upon all deposits which either directly or indirectly are placed with banks or bankers with the offer or expectation of receiving interest. Such legislation, if rigidly enforced, will have the effect not only to reduce the rate of interest throughout the country, but will at the same time prevent the illegitimate organization of savings banks, the organization of which should be allowed only upon the condition that the savings of the people shall be carefully and prudently invested and the interest arising therefrom, after deducting reasonable expenses, distributed from time to time to the depositors and to no other persons whosoever.

The act of March 3d, 1869, authorizes the appointment of a receiver if any officer, clerk or agent of any national bank shall certify any check drawn upon said bank unless the person or company drawing said check shall have on deposit in said bank at the time said check is certified an amount of money equal to the amount specified in such check. Receivers have been appointed for the National Bank of the Commonwealth of New York and the New Orleans Banking Association during the past year for violations of this act, and it is the intention of the Comptroller hereafter to rigidly enforce this act whenever he is satisfied of such violation.

CUBAN AFFAIRS

THE WAR CLOUD DIMINISHING.

NAVAL PREPARATIONS, HOWEVER, STILL ACTIVE.

No War Just Yet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—A Washington special says the Secretary of the Navy yesterday directed orders to be issued to suspend work on the iron-clads, and to detach from the large vessels recently ordered into commission all officers, to await further orders. The transportation of ordnance stores to Key West will also be stopped. There is no possibility, it is said, of settling the diplomatic controversy between Spain and the United States for many months to come, which accounts for the orders for retrenchment. The order for the formation of a battalion of marines has been countermanded.

A CABINET MEETING IN MADRID.

MADRID, Nov. 25.—A Cabinet council was held yesterday, at which a note to be sent to the government of the United States was under consideration. It is denied that the Spanish government is disposed to submit the Virginius question to the emperor of Germany for arbitration.

A CONTRADICTION FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The Construction Bureau of the Navy Department says if work at any of the navy-yards has been suspended it is not because of orders from Washington. It was only to-day that orders were sent from the Bureau to make some additional repairs on the Colorado at New York. The Roanoke is not intended for the North Atlantic Squadron, but for the mouth of the harbor, and as for the Dictator, there was very little work remaining to be done to her.

SENTIMENTS OF A HAVANA PAPER.

HAVANA, Nov. 25.—The Diario de la Marina has an editorial to-day of which the following is an extract: The Washington government knows to-day and the United States Congress will know to-morrow the justice with which the Spanish authorities have acted. They will take care of the national honor without suffering themselves to be influenced by the cries of the masses, who do not know what these Cuban patriots are. Far from our minds be the feeling of arrogance, farther still the feeling of debility from our hearts. We neither seek nor shun peril. If the Americans oblige us to fight, fight we will. If the mother country can aid us we will thank her, but if we must contend alone there are enough Spaniards in Cuba to keep our banner safe. We will sell very dearly that which was once the most brilliant flower of the crown of Castile.

The funeral of the late Count San Fernando took place to-day. The murderer committed suicide in prison last night by taking poison.

WORK AT THE BROOKLYN NAVY-YARD.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Twenty-five hundred men were paid at the navy-yard to-day, most of whom have been employed since the Virginius outrage.

The Spanish iron-clad Arapiles has not left the yard yet, but was painted to-day and the last work upon her in the dry dock will be done to-morrow. Everything in the yard was going on as usual this afternoon, although several reports stated that there had been orders stopping work.

THE SITUATION AT WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The Cabinet was in session only about two hours to-day. All the members were present except Secretary Robeson, who is in Philadelphia in connection with naval prepartions. The Spanish question was debated, but no additional facts presented by the Secretary of State, nor was any new action taken relative to the subject. This government will act toward Spain as toward all other countries in cases of controversy and await with proper respect replies to our complaints. There is, however, anxiety expressed for intelligence from Spain of a decisive character in order that Congress may in the President's message be made acquainted with the fact.

THE JUDGE OF THE VIRGINIUS VICTIMS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—It appears that Lieut. Commander Autran, who commanded the Spanish war steamer Rozan at Aspinwall last spring when commander Reed of the United States navy escorted the Virginius out of that harbor, was the Judge Advocate at the recent summary trial and condemnation to death of the crew and passengers of the Virginius at Santiago de Cuba.

ACTIVITY AT THE WASHINGTON NAVY-YARD.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Orders were received at the Washington navy-yard this morning to fit the Shawmut for sea with all possible despatch. All the men that can be employed to advantage will be put to work night and day. The Fortune was launched this morning and will be ready for sea in a few days. She will carry two thirty pound rifled guns in addition to her torpedo attachment.

IMPORTANT DISPATCHES RECEIVED.

There are indications that dispatches were received to-night by both Secretary Fish and Admiral Polo, the Spanish Minister, from Madrid of a character which gives more than heretofore promise of a peaceful solution of the present complications, and it is known that these gentlemen were in private conference for several hours to-night at the residence of Fish comparing dispatches and discussing generally the situation of affairs. It was remarked to-night by a gentleman prominently connected with this government that things look far more hopeful now than ever.

NO SUSPENSION OF PREPARATIONS AT PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25.—So far as the Philadelphia navy-yard is concerned no orders have as yet been received for a suspension of work. On the contrary the work in hand is not only being pushed to completion but fresh orders have been received. To-day Admiral Porter made a tour of inspection among the vessels at the yard and a dispatch was received ordering the dispatch boat Pinta to proceed immediately to sea.

PUSHING WORK AT THE CARTRIDGE MANUFACTORY.

BOSTON, Nov. 25.—The United States Cartridge Co. commences this week to run their works day and night with two sets of men. They have pressing orders for several millions of cartridges from the War and Navy Departments.

THE PHELPS DEFALCATION.

Mr. Warren's Report.

ALBANY, Nov. 25.—The following is the official synopsis prepared for the Evening Journal of the final report made by Mr. Warren, who was called to examine the accounts of the State Treasurer after the defalcation by Phelps was discovered. It exhibits the exact amount of money taken by Phelps, the defaulting clerk, the time at which the theft was perpetrated, and the false entries in the Treasurer's books with a view to cover up his frauds. The report is a very voluminous one, and is illustrated by numerous tabular statements; and we are, therefore, only able to lay before our readers a synopsis of it. It will be sent to the Legislature by the Governor at the opening of the session.

The whole amount taken by Phelps is $301,771.89.

The 31st of July, 1873, was the last day when the Treasurer's deposits and cash on hand belonging to the General Fund were shown to agree with the Comptroller's books. The whole amount abstracted, as above stated, occurred between that day and the 16th of October, 1873, "and it was done by withholding moneys received from day to day in "drafts and currency from deposit and appropriating the same, or in other words "stealing it."

The amount stolen in the month of August was	$200,000 00
The residue stolen in the month of September was	101,771 89
	$301,771 89

In the Cash Book were entered the following deposits, for which no corresponding credits can be found in the accounts of the deposit banks:

1873—Aug. 2,	Cash Book,	folio 36		$50,000 00
" " 5,	"	"		48,500 00
" " 7,	"	"		67,877 69
" " 2,	"	"		33,622 31
				$200,000 00

The entries of these items of pretended deposits do not specify the banks in which they were alleged to be deposited. Nor were any such items to be found in the Bank Ledger. But there is an entry in said Ledger (folio 131) under date of August 30, 1873, to the debit of the Mechanics' and Farmers' Bank, Albany, of $200,000; but no corresponding credit is found in the pass book account of that bank or any other of the deposit banks.

In regard to the pass-book of the deposit banks Mr. Warren says: "While the pass-books have always, or usually been written up every month, and the cancelled checks returned to the Treasurer, I find that the very important duty of examining and comparing them has not been properly performed, the person whose business it was and who was relied upon by the Treasurer to attend to it (C. H. Phelps) having wholly neglected it or failed to performed it in a proper manner for more than a year past, a fact which has been developed by the examination, and which has caused a delay of more than two weeks in completing the same."

The next question solved by Mr. Warren is, "Who stole the money?" He states that Mr. Phelps from the time of his appointment had the entire charge of the money received and deposited from day to day, and kept the account of receipts, the cash account and the bank accounts; that although theoretically subordinate to the Deputy Treasurer he exercised almost entire control of all the cash transactions; that the absence of the Treasurer for much the greater part of the time, according to the custom of his predecessors in office, and the absence of the Deputy, caused by a long and severe illness, afforded Mr. Phelps every opportunity of carrying out his purpose; that having, like his predecessors in office, assumed the title of "Cashier," to which he had no legal right, he began to endorse for deposit drafts drawn in favor of the Treasurer thus: "Pay to E. A. Groesbeck, Esq., Cashier; State Treasurer, per C. H. Phelps, Cashier;" that although this was objected to by both the Treasurer and his Deputy, the bank was not notified not to recognize such endorsements; that having in that way familiarized the officers of the National Commercial Bank with his said pretended official signature, he ventured on the experiment of sending to New York drafts remitted to the Treasurer in payment of the state taxes, &c., endorsed in that manner, and was successful, though they were passed through a house of questionable repute.

Mr. Warren concludes this part of his report thus: "In view of the foregoing it seems very evident that the man who committed the great crime, not only against the State, but against his benefactor, the Treasurer, who had so implicitly trusted him, was Charles H. Phelps. I find nothing to show or lead me to suspect that either the Treasurer, Deputy Treasurer, or any of the clerks in the office either connived at, or had any knowledge or suspicion of what was going on."

In the course of his examination, Mr. Warren discovered and pointed out several practices which he condemns as unauthorized and illegal. Among them is that of making temporary loans and advances to various public officers and clerks in and about the State Hall on their monthly salaries (to use his words) "as has long been the practice heretofore." These advances and loans he states to have amounted on the 16th of October, 1873, to $4,547.29.

Mr. Warren also refers to a practice which has existed for several years, and for which the state officers are in nowise responsible, of using the moneys belonging to the Sinking Funds for the expenses of the government. It is proper to say that this practice commenced years ago, and is the fault of the legislature, which, unwilling to incur the odium of levying taxes in sufficient amount to meet extravagant appropriations, authorized a temporary use of the moneys belonging to the Sinking Funds. These deficient appropriations and their consequences were pointed out in the Comptroller's last annual report; and the use of the Sinking Fund moneys for such purposes was referred to and condemned in pointed terms by the Governor in his annual message as a violation of the faith of the State. The Comptroller, since the last session of the legislature, though having four millions of state bonds to redeem, has nevertheless invested more than three millions belonging to the Sinking Funds in permanent securities, and before the ending of another year will go very far toward the complete correction of this public wrong.

The Journal says: Although other irregularities in the Treasury Department are pointed out by Mr. Warren, they are not of such a nature, in the opinion of the Governor, as to warrant the exercise of the power confided to him by the Constitution of removing the Treasurer from office.

He will, we have no doubt, take such notice in his message to the legislature of these various irregularities as to place the responsibility where it belongs and lead to proper measures for their correction.

METROPOLITAN NEWS.

Bidding for the City Stocks.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Notwithstanding the large amount of city stocks for which bids were to be opened to-day, there were but two bids made, one for $2,000 at one-quarter per cent. premium of the consolidated city stock and $100,000 of Croton water main stock at par, making $102,000 bid made for the $2,717,000 offered.

CELEBRATING EVACUATION DAY.

The flags on the City Hall and on nearly all the buildings on Broadway, as well as on the vessels in port, were displayed to-day in honor of the ninetieth anniversary of the departure of the British army from New York. Mayor Havemeyer reviewed the Seventh Regiment in front of the City Hall this afternoon and the veterans of 1812 partook of a banquet at the Sixth Regiment armory.

SALUTING THE COLORS.

When the Spanish ship-of-war Arapiles hoisted her colors they were cheered by the officers and men of the ships.

A MEXICAN DIFFICULTY.

Two American priests who were expelled from Mexico have engaged a New York lawyer to demand reparation from Secretary Fish.

THE ACTION OF THE CLEARING HOUSE.

The Post says of to-day's action of the Clearing House:

"The results of the meeting were the defeat of the old Committee of Nine and the attempt to make the Clearing House a central power, having legislative functions. It is now left with each bank to manage its own business and to abide by the results of such management."

CLOSING OF NAVIGATION BETWEEN NEW YORK AND ALBANY.

Navigation of the Hudson River from this city to Albany is suspended, the steamers going into winter quarters to-day. This is the earliest closing of navigation during the present century.

A HEAVY AND FRAUDULENT FAILURE.

It is stated the discovery was made late last night that G. B. Lichtenbergh of Detroit, in the tobacco trade here on Pearl street, had bought $300,000 worth of goods in bond on credit, transferred them in bond, sold them for cash and failed. His business here was carried on by a man named Simpson, formerly of Albany, who is alleged to have drawn over $50,000 cash last Friday from the Traders' Bank and has not been seen since. Twenty of the creditors held a meeting to-day, who have each been victimized from $20,000 to $1,000, and measures were taken to recover their property. Simpson, however, has gone to Europe. A Hartford tobacco merchant was victimized out of $60,000.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Case of the First National Bank.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—In the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia to-day an order was passed authorizing the receiver of the First National Bank of Washington to sign a "proposition" making E. H. Rollins trustee with the consent of the creditors, as heretofore submitted by Jay Cooke & Co., unless good cause to the contrary be shown by the proper parties by next Tuesday. The application was made on the sworn petition of the receiver and by direction of the Comptroller of the Currency after consultation with the Secretary and Solicitor of the Treasury. As the matter rests by law in the direction of the receiver and Comptroller the order is deemed to be a finality.

STOCK and MONEY MARKET.

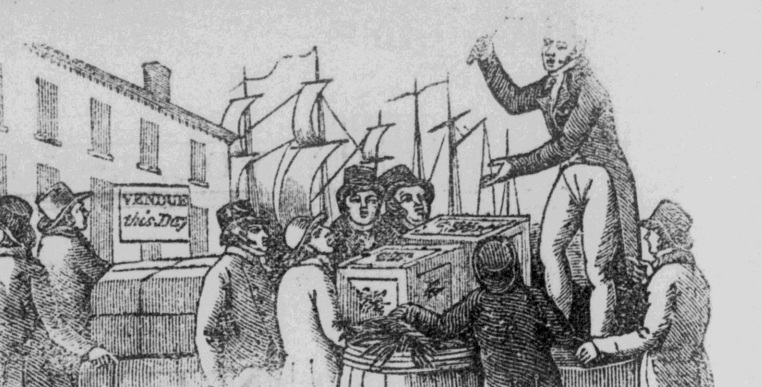

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.

Money closed at 7 gold. Sterling heavy and lower at 7@7½ for 60 days and 8¼@¾ for sight. Customs receipts $329,000. Gold closed at 9⅞ after selling at 9½@9⅝; the advance to the latter figure being caused by the report that the Secretary of the Navy was visiting the navy-yard and hurrying work on vessels of war. Loans were at 3-64, 1-32, 7 and 7 gold; final rate was 7. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $260,000. Clearings $48,000,000. Governments quiet and steady. State bonds nominal. Railway and miscellaneous speculation was strong and higher at an advance of ⅛ to 3⅛ per cent. until late in the day, when a reaction of ¼ to 1⅛ per cent. took place. At the final close there was a steadier feeling again; the volume of business was large, particularly in Western Union, New York Central, Lake Shore, Pacific, Wabash and Northwest common. The buoyancy in stocks was occasioned by a telegram from Washington that both the President and Secretary of the Treasury would recommend to Congress that the $40,000,000 reserve be made a part of the permanent circulation of the country and also a report that the Grinnell matter had been privately adjusted. The Chairman of the Clearing House Association appointed the following new committee in place of the committee of nine. The report of the old committee will be referred to them: W. H. Kitchen, Park Bank; H. F. Vail, Commerce; D. C. Hayes, Union; Richard Berry, Tradesmen's; Geo. W. Duer, State of New York; John Costree, Irving; James Buell, Importers' and Traders'; F. Chandler, Mechanics' Banking Association; C. M. Jourdan, Third Avenue National; O. H. Schreiver, German American.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

CITY NOTES.

—Additional ventilation is being provided for in public school No. 7.

—High Water at Rondout Light House to-day at 6 A. M. and 6:30 P. M.

—The popular amusement on Tuesday was a ride to Crane's St. Nicholas Hotel in a sleigh.

—Yesterday 16 canal boats laden with 1,250 tons of coal reached tide water at Eddyville through the Delaware & Hudson canal.

—Now's the time to replenish the city treasury. Copy Albany's example and fine the sliders-down-hill.

—74,210 people have stood with arms akimbo and mouths wide open in front of Safford & Carter's store, gazing on the magic clock, since a description of it was given in The Freeman.

—One of our uptown lawyers was considerably astonished the other afternoon while examining some books in the auction store on Wall street, at being accosted in great earnestness by the proprietor with "Dominie, how large a congregation have you?"

—When the Common Council meets it should at once issue peremptory orders for the prompt clearing of sidewalks after each fall of snow. The accumulation and continuance of snow upon the sidewalks is an unmitigated nuisance and a great obstacle to business and pleasure.

—We learn that the Hampton students, a troupe of vocalists fully equal to the Jubilee Singers, will give a performance in Washington Hall early in December. They have returned from Europe, where they made a most successful tour, and have given a series of entertainments in Steinway Hall, New York, where large audiences greeted them.

—There was a great row in the Opera House on Monday night. An outsider took possession of the stage, when Leon sought to dispossess him. Tableau—gas-pipe drawn by outsider to demolish Leon. Leon with a drawn revolver ready to bore a hole in outsider. Youth and beauty (Kate Riddell) to Leon's rescue—howls by the audience—lights out—all hands before the Recorder on Tuesday.

—Some kind friend of John Schnitzler has added a bald-headed monkey to John's menagerie. The new brute arrived from the wilds of Saugerties on Monday night, and such a time as there was to restrain that monkey from eating everything there was in the house never was seen. After the monkey had been made fast by a strap around its waist, said Mary: "John, what's that?" "Dot's a pall-headet monkey." "Zo-o-! vell, as he ton't maket you pall-headet it's vell." And now John is mad about it.

Personal.

Mr. George T. Mickens, with wife and sister, arrived by steamship from Europe last Saturday after a fourteen days' passage, thirteen of which were very stormy.

Death of an Old Friend.

We deeply regret to learn of the death of Tunis Wortman, who for thirty-five years has been a Justice of the Peace of Rhinebeck. One of the most honorable men in the place, he was universally respected, and his death will be widely mourned.

Fitch's Lecture.

Hon. Thomas Fitch lectures at Music Hall on Thanksgiving evening on "A Sage Brusher in Vienna," and those who heard him last year will be sure to go to hear him again, as he has an original, racy style that makes his lectures exceedingly interesting. Mr. Crane has arranged for a special train from Rondout at seven o'clock and one from Big Indian, stopping at all way stations.

Second M. E. Lecture Course.

We take pleasure in commending in advance the first lecture in the Kingston Second M. E. Church course to-night. The subject, "Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge," is one with which Mr. Mickie is thoroughly conversant. He was there and knows how it was himself. Mr. Mickie possesses an enviable reputation for fine descriptive powers, and he will interest and improve all who go to hear him. The object—church improvement—and the oration will, no doubt, call out a full house.

The Albany Dress-Spoiler Sent to Prison.

Philip Van Cott, the scoundrel arrested some time since for ruining ladies' dresses by spitting licorice juice upon them as they passed along the streets of Albany, on Monday plead guilty to an indictment for that offence, and was sentenced to the penitentiary in that city for one year. At the time of his arrest he confessed to Chief of Police Maloy that he was the only person who had been guilty of licorice squirting in Albany, and since then no complaints of dresses having been spoiled in this manner have been made to the police of that city.

Cow Overboard.

On Tuesday afternoon about 3 o'clock as a cow belonging to Dayton, the Hasbrouck avenue butcher, was being driven on board the Sleightburgh ferry-boat by a man named Holt, the animal became facetious, and in taking some can-can steps with that grace for which cows are noted, she was precipitated into the icy waters of the Rondout, from which, after an unusual amount of profane adjectives had been discharged by the rescuers, the brute was finally landed on terra-firma and led off to the shambles, from which her flesh, no doubt, this morning warmly furnishes the adjunct to the buckwheat cakes and coffee.

Heavy Damages Claimed.

The law firm of A. J. & A. J. Parker, Jr., on behalf of George P. Lynd, Martin Barry, John Dolan and Peter Kell, have commenced a suit against the Rensselaer & Saratoga Division of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company, for damages alleged to have been sustained by the negligence of the company's employes, in running into a wagon belonging to Mr. Lynd, smashing it and injuring Dolan, the driver. Barry and Kell, who were upon it. The damages claimed foot up $15,000, divided among the four as follows: Dolan, who is rendered a cripple, $10,000; Barry, slightly injured, $2,000; George P. Lynd, owner of wagon, $1,000. The summons and complaint in the matter were served on the company Saturday.—Albany Express.

Another Incendiary Attempt.

About seven o'clock on Tuesday evening an alarm was caused by the discovery of fire in a part of the wagon and sleigh manufactory of Jonathan Shultz, corner Hasbrouck avenue and Mill street. The fire had but just started and was easily extinguished. An examination of the premises developed the fact that the fire was the result of an incendiary attempt, as kerosene had been used for starting it. As no fire is ever used in this part of the establishment the proof is plain that the work was that of an incendiary. Had this infamous attempt succeeded the fire would undoubtedly have been a large and disastrous one and the loss immense.

ALONG THE RIVER.

—Mr. Samuel J. Davenport of Albany has just patented a new kind of pavement.

—The Troy Whig says a faro bank with a capital of $500 was opened in that city Saturday evening, and before twelve o'clock the players "busted" it.

—The steamer General Sedgwick, now running on the Newburgh and Haverstraw line, will make her last trip on Wednesday, the 26th, to-day.

—J. Bigler & Co.'s ship, the Elizabeth Hamilton, which left Newburgh some time ago with a cargo of timber for California, sprung a leak on the 1st of November and put into Bermuda for repairs.

—Bartholomew Russell, of Troy, who resides in Troy, and who was struck by a locomotive on the Central Railroad, near Tribe's Hill, Friday the 14th inst., died in Troy, Sunday morning.

—Capt. Thomas Abrams of the Thomas Powell will spend the winter in Europe. Mr. J. H. Talmadge, clerk of the steamer Sunnyside, will be united in marriage on New Year's day to Miss Van Steenberg of Catskill.

—A small barn owned by Abram Lansing, situate on Utica street, West Troy, was set on fire on Saturday, and with its contents, consisting of a load of hay, etc., was entirely consumed. The loss will not exceed $100.

—During the past week Governor Dix has pardoned the following persons: Victoria Monganant, of New York; John Jones, of Erie county; John Sweeney, of Albany; Howard C. Conray, of Kings county, and John H. Fisher, of New York.

—Mary Condell has commenced an action for a limited divorce from her husband, Benjamin Condell, on the ground that he has deserted and fails to provide for her. It appears that they resided in Catskill, Greene county, and that Condell has gone to Yorkshire, England.

—The compositors employed on the Sunday Press, and in the book and job departments, offer the following wager: $100 or $250, that Edward Rich, an apprentice on that paper, can compose more solid ems of nonpareil or minion, in one hour or five, than any other apprentice working at the business in the United States, who has not worked longer at the trade than he has, which is one year. The trial to take place at Albany. All communications addressed to Frank J. Loughlin, chairman of that office, will be promptly attended to.—Albany Times.

River and Erie Canal Navigation.

The Albany Morning Express of Tuesday says: "It was very much feared that the canal was closed for the season on Saturday, and that the millions of bushels of grain in the course of transit to the seaboard were locked up in boats, the ice having formed so thickly that to move the hundreds of canal boats seemed almost an impossibility; but the soft weather of yesterday morning showed quite a change in the aspect of affairs, and as the falling snow changed to warm rain the ice rapidly melted under its influence and the boats moved easily and fast between this city and Utica. Our reporter visiting the locks in the upper part of the city, yesterday, observed the boats being passed to the river with much dispatch, and was informed that all the grain at present on its way to New York would in all probability reach the metropolis before navigation was entirely closed. This is exceedingly fortunate, as it would have involved a serious loss, that would have been felt in all quarters, if the vast amount of grain coming from the west had been ice-bound before reaching its destination. As fast as the canalers arrived here yesterday tows were made up by the Schuyler and Austin steamers in attendance, and last evening three enormous tows of about one hundred boats proceeded down the river.

In the river, freighting has taken a sudden start and all the steamers are again at work. The City of Hudson made her appearance at her wharf yesterday, the first time in three days. She departed for Catskill at her usual hour. The steamer Eagle went to Newburgh yesterday and the Martin arrived therefrom yesterday afternoon. The Dean Richmond, of the People's Line, was to leave New York last evening, but a dispatch received at the Albany office yesterday afternoon stated that she would not go out until to-night, when her regular trip will be recovered—together with the St. John—so long as the weather holds out. The Connecticut having a large tow, principally empties, arrived here last evening and reports the river comparatively clear of ice. The Troy boat Thomas Powell stopped on her way down at the steamboat landing last night and took a few passengers and some freight to New York. The basin is full of ice and many boats have gone in there for winter quarters. The club house of the Mutuals has been towed into the lower basin and placed in a position to prevent its damage at the breaking up of the ice in the spring. The ferry boats find no difficulty in running as yet. In regard to the canals the following dispatches have been received by Auditor Dayton:

COHOES, N. Y., Nov. 24.

HON. G. A. DAYTON, AUDITOR: All boats are off from section. Locked through about seventy boats to tide water since Saturday morning. If Superintendent on section two sends down more will take care of them.

NORRIS NORTH, Superintendent.

WATERFORD, N. Y., Nov. 24.

HON. G. A. DAYTON, AUDITOR: The last boat of the fleet from Fort Edward and points this way was locked into the river at one o'clock this morning, making fifty-one in sixteen hours. Will make an effort to move the fleet desiring to go north.

F. K. MARSHALL.

The Cheeky Lawyers.

The committee of the Board of Supervisors appointed to wait upon Marius Schoonmaker and James M. Cooper to ascertain the amount they demanded as counsel in the Brodhead case reported that Marius Schoonmaker asked $6,000 and James M. Cooper $4,000. None of the Supervisors, not even Bruyn, voted in favor of giving them that sum. Mr. Bruyn, however, asked if it wouldn't be well to investigate and see if they had not earned the amount. Afterwards a resolution to designate some fixed amount which the Board would pay was offered by Supervisor Fallon, but it only received the vote of Supervisor Bruyn. On the first proposition—to pay $10,000—Supervisor Noone expressed his intention to sit there until he rotted before he would vote anything but "No!" Supervisor Stone expressed the heartiest concurrence in Supervisor Noone's sentiments. Supervisor Mellon said he was willing to pay a reasonable sum to get those lawyers out of the way so the county could press the suit against Brodhead, but he was not willing to pay any such extravagant figures.

This offer of Schoonmaker and Cooper is considerably less than the enormous amounts asked previously. But the gentlemen will have to drop considerably more yet before people will even look at their figures. Nothing was said in regard to a settlement of the Brodhead case.

Challenge Accepted.

Pocahontas Engine Co. No. 2, of Rhinebeck, have resolved to play the Coxsackie Company for a purse of $1,000, on same terms and conditions as those under which both companies played at the Poughkeepsie Tournament, and have appointed Howard H. Morse, George Tremper and Alonzo O. Noxon a committee to make the necessary arrangements. Pocahontas boys desire the match to take place in Poughkeepsie.

Union Services.

There will be a union service of the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches on Thanksgiving Day in the 2d M. E. Church, at 10:30 A. M. Rev. Mr. Denniston will preach the sermon.

A Frenchman Wins a Turkey.

An uptown Frenchman won a turkey at a raffle the other night, and he became so elated the crowd had all they could do to keep him from waltzing on his ear. "Zo bootoful tur-kee, me peek him viz ze two dollars from one ze raffle vat you call im zea!" Well, he put that turkey under his arm and started for home, squeezing the poor bird so its loud and startling pleadings could be heard all along the route. When the Frenchman reached his boarding-house, he carried the turkey to his room and let him loose, then carefully locked his door and went to bed. In the morning the boarders were awakened by tremendous cries of expostulation from the fowl, and a fearful mixture of French and something else being addressed to that turkey in a manner that shocked the landlady. It turned out afterwards the turkey had found a roosting place during the night on the back of the chair where the Frenchman was in the habit of laying his clothes. That turkey was put in the wash woman's basket and carried off with many an objurgation given on the way that startled the promenaders who happened to meet the highly excited individual.

Excitement in Stamford.

STAMFORD, N. Y., Nov. 25th, 1873.

EDITOR FREEMAN:—Champ, Editor of the "Mirror," this morning discharged one of the employees in his office (Clarence E. Martin) with a good public horsewhipping in the post-office for making an insulting proposition in a letter to his little daughter of twelve years. The public think Champ took things cool. He exhibited the letter and asked the young man if he wrote it and being answered in the affirmative, told him to see if he read it correctly, which was done publicly, and the proof being correctly read by Champ, he took a horsewhip, which he held in his hand, and plied it vigorously to his person until the man (larger and stronger than Champ) begged, when he was told to never again make his appearance on the premises; if he did, greater punishment would await him. Also, that if he pursued such a course of conduct he would be punished in state prison. Bully for Champ.

Yours, REPORTER.

A Couple of Rowdies Punished.

On Monday night a couple of men named Scott and McGee came to the building of Barney Cullerton in Ponckhockie and broke into the store in the lower part. Mr. Cullerton saw and heard them, but was afraid to meet them single-handed. The two men after ransacking the store went away, but pretty soon came back. Cullerton, with a young man named Warren Lefever, then went after the two scamps and caught them trying to enter the building, and gave them a pretty thorough drubbing.

Donation.

A donation will be given at the house of Clarke Atkins, Esopus, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 2d, for the benefit of Rev. F. D. Abrams; if stormy, the next fair evening.

Card of Thanks.

I beg leave to hereby tender my hearty thanks to the members of the Fire Department and citizens who so promptly and energetically extinguished the fire in my building on Tuesday evening. Had it not been for their exertions I would have been subjected to heavy loss, and I feel under great obligations to them for staying the flames.

CRANE'S LYCEUM ENTERTAINMENTS.

—14th YEAR.—

MR. H. M. CRANE

Has the honor to announce the following series of entertainments for the regular season of 1873–4. It has been the aim of the manager to maintain the PRESTIGE which this Lyceum has obtained, and he confidently assures the people that in each and every announcement the high reputation of these entertainments will be abundantly sustained. No course in this country is more replete with the first-class talent of the Platform—and in respect to culture, excellence, and worth is superior to any by far the ablest and most entertaining of any hitherto offered by Crane's Lyceum. It is a galaxy of and just suited to the wants of those, who, wearied with the toils of the day, seek rest and amusement such as shall be pleasing and at the same time elevating.

CONCERT EVERY NIGHT

UNDER THE DIRECTION OF

Mr. Albert Burger

This interval of 15 minutes of musical and vocal enjoyment has come to be an attractive and popular feature.

"Three Holiday Nights"

THANKSGIVING, CHRISTMAS & NEW YEAR'S!

Order of Entertainments:

2. THOMAS FITCH. THURSDAY, NOV. 27th. Thanksgiving Night. SUBJECT—"A SAGE BRUSHER IN VIENNA." Mr. Fitch has just returned from Europe, and will give his impressions, which will be sure to be unique and interesting. Mr. Fitch first appeared among us last season, and many can attest that he fully met the high expectations which Mark Twain's extravagant letter had raised.

3. THOMAS NAST. WEDNESDAY, DEC. 3. SUBJECT—"CARICATURING," Illustrated with Sketches Drawn in Presence of the Audience. The art of caricature is the reverse of one of Wendell Phillips' "Lost Arts;" it is a just found art, at least in this country. This "instantaneous caricature" is a comparatively "new thing,"—somewhat of a "sensation." No artist in America is so well known to the people at large and so popular as Thomas Nast.

"He made his fourth public appearance last night, and we trust that the career he has rather reluctantly undertaken will prove as profitable to himself as it must be delightful to his audiences. It was refreshing; and that they were pleased, laughter and applause frequently attested."—Lewiston, Me., Journal.

4. HON. WILLIAM PARSONS, Of Ireland. TUESDAY, DEC. 9. SUBJECT—"GEORGE STEPHENSON, Hero and Benefactor: being the story of a man self-raised from the pit to the palace."

No foreign orator has ever visited us who has been been so successful year after year in delighting American audiences by his scholarly and vivid eloquence, as Hon. William Parsons of Ireland.—It is no more than the simple truth to say that he has never been equalled in the estimation of American Lyceums. He is par excellence an Orator and Humorist. He never disappoints; every time we hear him he seems fresher, more touching, and more humorous. Dr. Dio Lewis says: "He cannot be compared to any other lecturer; he belongs to a new species." Four years ago, unheralded by his agents, and unknown to his audience, Mr. Parsons delivered his first lecture in Boston. He took rank, at once, with the greatest orators of the American Lyceum. His record since then has been the history of the most brilliant success ever achieved in this country by any trans-atlantic orator.

"Mr. Parsons is one of the very few orators of foreign birth who have carried the New England lyceum, as it were, by storm. Managers and journalists, wherever he has spoken, vie with each other in their eulogiums of him. No other orator from abroad, our brave and eloquent Anna Dickinson, alone excepted, has ever before been invited to lecture in three different courses in Boston during the same season, and also in independent lectures. This unique triumph has been won by Mr. Parsons."—Boston Traveler.

5. DR. J. G. HOLLAND. WEDNESDAY, DEC. 17. SUBJECT—"THE ELEMENTS OF PERSONAL POWER." Does Dr. Holland need any introduction? Guess not. He is an old favorite, and yet new and fresh as ever.

6. The Old Year out with JOHN B. GOUGH, "The King of the Platform." CHRISTMAS NIGHT, Thursday, Dec 25. "NOW AND THEN." This most popular of all living orators has spoken 250 times in one year. It is fair to say that in such addresses he must have spoken to 300,000 different people—and the assertion is here ventured that among his grandest triumphs and greatest compliments, must be placed the greeting he received at Music Hall last season, Dec. 26th, 1872, when with the thermometer marking fifteen degrees below zero, 1300 people from near and far had gathered to hear him.

7. The New Year in With ANNA DICKINSON, "The Queen of the Platform." NEW YEAR'S NIGHT—THURSDAY, JANUARY 1, 1874. "For Your Own Sake." Miss Dickinson's reception last season was the most flattering she ever received here for her sake.

8. MRS. MARY A. LIVERMORE, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 7. SUBJECT: "What Shall we do with our Daughters." This is a conundrum a great many people feel interested in having solved. That Mrs. Livermore solves the riddle satisfactorily is attested by the extraordinary demand for this speech. In New England, where the lyceum system is thoroughly organized, and where all the best lecturers are regularly heard, Mrs. Livermore is UNEQUALLED, in popularity, by any other woman.

9. HON. WM. S. ANDREWS. WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 14. SUBJECT:—"DIALECT HUMOR." No lecturer has ever kept his audiences in more constant laughter. There can be no greater evidence of his success than is to be found in the fact that he has frequently been invited to repeat this lecture in the same courses and before the same audience. It is interspersed with illustrations in eighteen dialects, representing as many phases of humorous character. "This lecture is unique and it differs entirely from those of the humorous lectures we are familiar with, because of the variety of its themes."

10. REV. GEO. H. HEPWORTH. Wednesday, January 21. SUBJECT—"WHO SHALL WIN?" This is Mr. H.'s first appearance here, and the manager hazards nothing in the prediction that for a speech finale, nothing better could have been desired. Any one who has heard Hepworth's "Luck and Pluck," can safely anticipate a richer treat in this new lecture.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

CITY NOTES.

—Additional ventilation is being provided for in public school No. 7.

—High Water at Rondout Light House to-day at 6 A. M. and 6:39 P. M.

—The popular amusement on Tuesday was a ride to Clare's St. Nicholas Hotel in a sleigh.

—Yesterday 10 canal boats laden with 1,250 tons of coal reached tide water at Eddyville through the Delaware & Hudson canal.

—Now's the time to replenish the city treasury. Copy Albany's example and fine the sliders-down-hill.

—74,210 people have stood with arms akimbo and mouths wide open in front of Safford & Carter's store, gazing on the magic clock, since a description of it was given in The Freeman.

—One of our uptown lawyers was considerably astonished the other afternoon while examining some books in the auction store on Wall street, at being accosted in great earnestness by the proprietor with "Dominie, how large a congregation have you?"

—When the Common Council meets it should at once issue peremptory orders for the prompt clearing of sidewalks after each fall of snow. The accumulation and continuance of snow upon the sidewalks is an unmitigated nuisance and a great obstacle to business and pleasure.

—We learn that the Hampton students, a troupe of vocalists fully equal to the Jubilee Singers, will give a performance in Washington Hall early in December. They have returned from Europe, where they made a most successful tour, and have given a series of entertainments in Steinway Hall, New York, where large audiences greeted them.

—There was a great row in the Opera House on Monday night. An outsider took possession of the stage, when Leon sought to dispossess him. Tableau—gas-pipe drawn by outsider to demolish Leon. Leon with a drawn revolver ready to bore a hole in outsider. Youth and beauty (Kate Riddell) to Leon's rescue—howls by the audience—lights out—all hands before the Recorder on Tuesday.

—Some kind friend of John Schnitzler has added a bald-headed monkey to John's menagerie. The new brute arrived from the wilds of Saugerties on Monday night, and such a time as there was to restrain that monkey from eating everything there was in the house never was seen. After the monkey had been made fast by a strap around its waist, said Mary: "John, what's that?" "Dot's a pall-heatet moonky." "Zo-o-! vell, as he ton't makes you pall-heatet it's well." And now John is mad about it.

Personal.

Mr. George T. Mickens, with wife and sister, arrived by steamship from Europe last Saturday after a fourteen days' passage, thirteen of which were very stormy.

Death of an Old Friend.

We deeply regret to learn of the death of Tunis Wortman, who for thirty-five years has been a Justice of the Peace of Rhinebeck. One of the most honorable men in the place, he was universally respected, and his death will be widely mourned.

Fitch's Lecture.

Hon. Thomas Fitch lectures at Music Hall on Thanksgiving evening on "A Sage Brusher in Vienna," and those who heard him last year will be sure to go to hear him again, as he has an original, racy style that makes his lectures exceedingly interesting. Mr. Crane has arranged for a special train from Rondout at seven o'clock and one from Big Indian, stopping at all way stations.

Second M. E. Lecture Course.

We take pleasure in commending in advance the first lecture in the Kingston Second M. E. Church course to-night. The subject, "Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge," is one with which Mr. Mickie is thoroughly conversant. He was there and knows how it was himself. Mr. Mickie possesses an enviable reputation for fine descriptive powers, and he will interest and improve all who go to hear him. The object—church improvement—and the oration will, no doubt, call out a full house.

The Albany Dress-Spoiler Sent to Prison.

Philip Van Cott, the scoundrel arrested some time since for ruining ladies' dresses by spitting licorice juice upon them as they passed along the streets of Albany, on Monday plead guilty to an indictment for that offence, and was sentenced to the penitentiary in that city for one year. At the time of his arrest he confessed to Chief of Police Maloy that he was the only person who had been guilty of licorice squirting in Albany, and since then no complaints of dresses having been spoiled in this manner have been made to the police of that city.

Cow Overboard.

On Tuesday afternoon about 3 o'clock as a cow belonging to Dayton, the Hasbrouck avenue butcher, was being driven on board the Sleightburgh ferry-boat by a man named Holt, the animal became facetious, and in taking some can-can steps with that grace for which cows are noted, she was precipitated into the icy waters of the Rondout, from which, after an unusual amount of profane adjectives had been discharged by the rescuers, the brute was finally landed on terra-firma and led off to the shambles, from which her flesh, no doubt, this morning warmly furnishes the adjunct to the buckwheat cakes and coffee.

Heavy Damages Claimed.

The law firm of A. J. & A. J. Parker, Jr., on behalf of George P. Lynd, Martin Barry, John Dolan and Peter Kell, have commenced a suit against the Rensselaer & Saratoga Division of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company, for damages alleged to have been sustained by the negligence of the company's employes, in running into a wagon belonging to Mr. Lynd, smashing it and injuring Dolan, the driver, Barry and Kell, who were upon it. The damages claimed foot up $15,000, divided among the four as follows: Dolan, who is rendered a cripple, $10,000; Barry, slightly injured, $2,000; George P. Lynd, owner of wagon, $1,000. The summons and complaint in the matter were served on the company Saturday.—Albany Express.

Another Incendiary Attempt.

About seven o'clock on Tuesday evening an alarm was caused by the discovery of fire in a part of the wagon and sleigh manufactory of Jonathan Shultz, corner Hasbrouck avenue and Mill street. The fire had but just started and was easily extinguished. An examination of the premises developed the fact that the fire was the result of an incendiary attempt, as kerosene had been used for starting it. As no fire is ever used in this part of the establishment the proof is plain that the work was that of an incendiary. Had this infamous attempt succeeded the fire would undoubtedly have been a large and disastrous one and the loss immense.

ALONG THE RIVER.

—Mr. Samuel J. Davenport of Albany has just patented a new kind of pavement.

—The Troy Whig says a faro bank with a capital of $500 was opened in that city Saturday evening, and before twelve o'clock the players "busted" it.

—The steamer General Sedgwick, now running on the Newburgh and Haverstraw line, will make her last trip on Wednesday, the 26th, to-day.

—J. Bigler & Co.'s ship, the Elizabeth Hamilton, which left Newburgh some time ago with a cargo of timber for California, sprung a leak on the 1st of November and put into Bermuda for repairs.

—Bartholomew Russell, of Troy, who resides in Troy, and who was struck by a locomotive on the Central Railroad, near Tribe's Hill, Friday the 14th inst., died in Troy, Sunday morning.

—Capt. Thomas Abrams of the Thomas Powell will spend the winter in Europe. Mr. J. H. Talmadge, clerk of the steamer Sunnyside, will be united in marriage on New Year's day to Miss Van Steenberg of Catskill.

—A small barn owned by Abram Lansing, situate on Utica street, West Troy, was set on fire on Saturday, and with its contents, consisting of a load of hay, etc., was entirely consumed. The loss will not exceed $100.

—During the past week Governor Dix has pardoned the following persons: Victoria Monganant, of New York; John Jones, of Erie county; John Sweeney, of Albany; Howard C. Conray, of Kings county, and John H. Fisher, of New York.

—Mary Cundell has commenced an action for a limited divorce from her husband, Benjamin Cundell, on the ground that he has deserted and fails to provide for her. It appears that they resided in Catskill, Greene county, and that Cundell has gone to Yorkshire, England.

—The compositors employed on the Sunday Press, and in the book and job departments, offer the following wager: $100 or $250, that Edward Rich, an apprentice on that paper, can compose more solid ems of nonpareil or minion, in one hour or five, than any other apprentice working at the business in the United States, who has not worked longer at the trade than he has, which is one year. The trial to take place at Albany. All communications addressed to Frank J. Loughlin, chairman of that office, will be promptly attended to.—Albany Times.

River and Erie Canal Navigation.

The Albany Morning Express of Tuesday says: "It was very much feared that the canal was closed for the season on Saturday, and that the millions of bushels of grain in the course of transit to the seaboard were locked up in boats, the ice having formed so thickly that to move the hundreds of canal boats seemed almost an impossibility; but the soft weather of yesterday morning showed quite a change in the aspect of affairs, and as the falling snow changed to warm rain the ice rapidly melted under its influence and the boats moved easily and fast between this city and Utica. Our reporter visiting the locks in the upper part of the city, yesterday, observed the boats being passed to the river with much dispatch, and was informed that all the grain at present on its way to New York would in all probability reach the metropolis before navigation was entirely closed. This is exceedingly fortunate, as it would have involved a serious loss, that would have been felt in all quarters, if the vast amount of grain coming from the west had been ice-bound before reaching its destination. As fast as the canalers arrived here yesterday tows were made up by the Schuyler and Austin steamers in attendance, and last evening three enormous tows of about one hundred boats proceeded down the river.

In the river, freighting has taken a sudden start and all the steamers are again at work. The City of Hudson made her appearance at her wharf yesterday, the first time in three days. She departed for Catskill at her usual hour. The steamer Eagle went to Newburgh yesterday and the Martin arrived therefrom yesterday afternoon. The Dean Richmond, of the People's Line, was to leave New York last evening, but a dispatch received at the Albany office yesterday afternoon stated that she would not go out until to-night, when her regular trip will be recovered—together with the St. John—as long as the weather holds out. The Connecticut having a large tow, principally empties, arrived here last evening and reports the river comparatively clear of ice. The Troy boat Thomas Powell stopped on her way down at the steamboat landing last night and took a few passengers and some freight to New York. The basin is full of ice and many boats have gone in there for winter quarters. The club house of the Mutuals has been towed into the lower basin and placed in a position to prevent its damage at the breaking up of the ice in the spring. The ferry boats find no difficulty in running as yet. In regard to the canals the following dispatches have been received by Auditor Dayton:

COHOES, N. Y., Nov. 24.

HON. G. A. DAYTON, AUDITOR: All boats are off from section. Locked through about seventy boats to tide water since Saturday morning. If Superintendent on section two sends down more will take care of them.

NORRIS NORTH, Superintendent.

WATERFORD, N. Y., Nov. 24.

HON. G. A. DAYTON, AUDITOR: The last boat of the fleet from Fort Edward and points this way was locked into the river at one o'clock this morning, making fifty-one in sixteen hours. Will make an effort to move the fleet desiring to go north.

F. K. MARSHALL.

The Cheeky Lawyers.

The committee of the Board of Supervisors appointed to wait upon Marius Schoonmaker and James M. Cooper to ascertain the amount they demanded as counsel in the Brodhead case reported that Marius Schoonmaker asked $6,000 and James M. Cooper $4,000. None of the Supervisors, not even Bruyn, voted in favor of giving them that sum. Mr. Bruyn, however, asked if it wouldn't be well to investigate and see if they had not earned the amount. Afterwards a resolution to designate some fixed amount which the Board would pay was offered by Supervisor Falton, but it only received the vote of Supervisor Bruyn. On the first proposition—to pay $10,000—Supervisor Noone expressed his intention to sit there until he rotted before he would vote anything but "No!" Supervisor Stone expressed the heartiest concurrence in Supervisor Noone's sentiments. Supervisor Mellon said he was willing to pay a reasonable sum to get those lawyers out of the way so the county could press the suit against Brodhead, but he was not willing to pay any such extravagant figures.

This offer of Schoonmaker and Cooper is considerably less than the enormous amounts asked previously. But the gentlemen will have to drop considerably more yet before people will even look at their figures. Nothing was said in regard to a settlement of the Brodhead case.

Challenge Accepted.

Pocahontas Engine Co. No. 2, of Rhinebeck, have resolved to play the Coxsackie Company for a purse of $1,000, on same terms and conditions as those under which both companies played at the Poughkeepsie Tournament, and have appointed Howard H. Morse, George Tremper and Alonzo C. Noxon a committee to make the necessary arrangements. Pocahontas boys desire the match to take place in Poughkeepsie.

Union Services.

There will be a union service of the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches on Thanksgiving Day in the 2d M. E. Church, at 10:30 A. M. Rev. Mr. Denniston will preach the sermon.

A Frenchman Wins a Turkey.

An uptown Frenchman won a turkey at a raffle the other night, and he became so elated the crowd had all they could do to keep him from waltzing on his ear. "Ze bootoful turkee, me peck him wiz ze two dollars from one ze raffle vat you call im zee?" Well, he put that turkey under his arm and started for home, squeezing the poor bird so its loud and startling pleadings could be heard all along the route. When the Frenchman reached his boarding-house, he carried the turkey to his room and let him loose, then carefully locked his door and went to bed. In the morning the boarders were awakened by tremendous cries of expostulation from the fowl, and a fearful mixture of French and something else being addressed to that turkey in a manner that shocked the landlady. It turned out afterwards the turkey had found a roosting place during the night on the back of the chair where the Frenchman was in the habit of laying his clothes. That turkey was put in the wash woman's basket and carried off with many an objurgation given on the way that startled the promenaders who happened to meet the highly excited individual.

Excitement in Stamford.

STAMFORD, N. Y., Nov. 25th, 1873.

EDITOR FREEMAN:—Champ, Editor of the "Mirror," this morning discharged one of the employees in his office (Clarence E. Martin) with a good public horsewhipping in the post-office for making an insulting proposition in a letter to his little daughter of twelve years. The public think Champ took things cool. He exhibited the letter and asked the young man if he wrote it and being answered in the affirmative, told him to see if he read it correctly, which was done publicly, and the proof being correctly read by Champ, he took a horsewhip, which he held in his hand, and plied it vigorously to his person until the man (larger and stronger than Champ) begged, when he was told to never again make his appearance on the premises; if he did, greater punishment would await him. Also, that if he pursued such a course of conduct he would be punished in state prison. Bully for Champ.

Yours, REPORTER.

A Couple of Rowdies Punished.

On Monday night a couple of men named Scott and McGee came to the building of Barney Cullerton in Ponckhockie and broke into the store in the lower part. Mr. Cullerton saw and heard them, but was afraid to meet them single-handed. The two men after ransacking the store went away, but pretty soon came back. Cullerton, with a young man named Warren Lefever, then went after the two scamps and caught them trying to enter the building, and gave them a pretty thorough drubbing.

Donation.

A donation will be given at the house of Clarke Atkins, Esopus, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 2d, for the benefit of Rev. F. D. Abrams; if stormy, the next fair evening.

Card of Thanks.

I beg leave to hereby tender my hearty thanks to the members of the Fire Department and citizens who so promptly and energetically extinguished the fire in my building on Tuesday evening. Had it not been for their exertions I would have been subjected to heavy loss, and I feel under great obligations to them for staying the flames.

3. THOMAS NAST, WEDNESDAY, DEC. 3.

SUBJECT—"CARICATURING." Illustrated with Sketches Drawn in Presence of the Audience. The art of caricature is the reverse of one of Wendell Phillips' "Lost Arts;" it is a just found art, at least in this country. This "instantaneous caricature" is a comparatively new thing,—somewhat of a "sensation." No artist in America is so well known to the people at large and so popular as Thomas Nast.

"He made his fourth public appearance last night, and we trust that the career he has rather reluctantly undertaken will prove as profitable to himself as it must be delightful to his audiences. It was refreshing; and that they were pleased, laughter and applause frequently attested."—Lewiston, Me., Journal.

4. HON. WILLIAM PARSONS, (Of Ireland,) TUESDAY, DEC. 9.

SUBJECT—"GEORGE STEPHENSON, Hero and Benefactor; being the story of a man self-raised from the pit to the palace.

No foreign orator has ever visited us who has been been so successful year after year in delighting American audiences by his scholarly and vivid eloquence, as Hon. William Parsons of Ireland.—It is no more than the simple truth to say that he has never been equalled in the estimation of American Lyceums. He is par excellence an Orator and Humorist. He never disappoints; every time we hear him he seems fresher, more touching, and more humorous. Dr. Dio Lewis says: "He cannot be compared to any other lecturer; he belongs to a new species." Four years ago, unheralded by his agents, and unknown to his audience, Mr. Parsons delivered his first lecture in Boston. He took rank, at once, with the greatest orators of the American Lyceum. His record since then has been the history of the most brilliant success ever achieved in this country by any trans-Atlantic orator.

"Mr. Parsons is one of the very few orators of foreign birth who have carried the New England lyceum, as it were, by storm. Managers and journalists, wherever he has spoken, vie with each other in their eulogiums of him. No other orator from 'abroad,' our brave and eloquent Anna Dickinson, alone excepted, has ever before been invited to lecture in three different courses in Boston during the same season, and also in independent lectures. This unique triumph has been won by Mr. Parsons."—Boston Traveler.

5. DR. J. G. HOLLAND, WEDNESDAY, DEC. 17.

SUBJECT—"THE ELEMENTS OF PERSONAL POWER."—Does Dr. Holland need any introduction? Guess not! He is an old favorite, and yet new and fresh as ever.

6. The Old Year out with JOHN B. GOUGH, "The King of the Platform." CHRISTMAS NIGHT, Thursday, Dec. 25. "NOW AND THEN."

This most popular of all living orators has spoken 330 times in one year. It is fair to say that in such addresses he must have spoken to 300,000 different people—and the assertion is here ventured that among his grandest triumphs and greatest compliments, must be placed the greeting he received at Music Hall last season, Dec. 25th, 1872, when with the thermometer marking fifteen degrees below zero, 1300 people from near and far had gathered to hear him.

7. The New Year in With ANNA DICKINSON, "The Queen of the Platform." NEW YEAR'S NIGHT—THURSDAY, JANUARY 1, 1874. "For Your Own Sake."

Miss Dickinson's reception last season was the most flattering she ever received here for her sake.

8. MRS. MARY A. LIVERMORE, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 7. SUBJECT: "What Shall we do with our Daughters."

This is a conundrum a great many people feel interested in having solved. That Mrs. Livermore solves the riddle satisfactorily is attested by the extraordinary demand for this speech. In New England, where the lyceum system is thoroughly organized, and where all the best lecturers are regularly heard, Mrs. Livermore is UNEQUALLED, in popularity, by any other woman.

9. HON. WM. S. ANDREWS. WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 14. SUBJECT:—"DIALECT HUMOR."

No lecturer has ever kept his audiences in more constant laughter. There can be no greater evidence of his success than is to be found in the fact that he has frequently been invited to repeat this lecture in the same courses and before the same audience. It is interspersed with illustrations in eighteen dialects, representing as many phases of humorous character. "This lecture is unique and it differs entirely from those of the humorous lectures we are familiar with, because of the variety of its themes."

10. REV. GEO. H. HEPWORTH, Wednesday, January 21, SUBJECT—"WHO SHALL WIN?"

This is Mr. H.'s first appearance here, and the manager hazards nothing in the prediction that for a speech finale, nothing better could have been desired. Any one who has heard Hepworth's "Luck and Pluck," can safely anticipate a richer treat in this new lecture.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked. "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelminitics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

A NEW THING UNDER THE SUN
Sixteen Oil Paintings in a Book!
Never before was such an idea attempted for book-illustration; every one who has seen it pronounced it Superb. Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's latest work,
Woman in Sacred History,
is a series of narrative-sketches, drawn from Scriptural, historical and legendary sources. Illustrated with Sixteen Choice Oil Chromos, after paintings by the most celebrated artists of the world, giving a rich and magnificent variety of oriental costume and beauty. Mrs. Stowe in her charming style has written a book full of interest, and without a dull page in it, which even if not illustrated would sell rapidly; but the
make it one of the most unique, original, and remarkable books ever offered. The pictures, if published separately, would readily sell for $2 each—or $32, while the entire book, with the sixteen pictures, together with the sumptuous bindings of the volume, can be had for one-fifth of that amount. The book is making a tremendous

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelminitics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

A NEW THING UNDER THE SUN

Sixteen Oil Paintings in a Book!

Never before was such an idea attempted for book-illustration; every one who has seen it pronounced it Superb. Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's latest work,

Woman in Sacred History,

is a series of narrative-sketches, drawn from Scriptural, historical and legendary sources. Illustrated with Sixteen Choice Oil Chromos, after paintings by the most celebrated artists of the world, giving a rich and magnificent variety of oriental costume and beauty. Mrs. Stowe in her charming style has written a book full of interest, and without a dull page in it, which even if not illustrated would sell rapidly; but the

make it one of the most unique, original, and remarkable books ever offered. The pictures, if published separately, would readily sell for $2 each—or $32, while the entire book, with the sixteen pictures, together with the sumptuous bindings of the volume, can be had for one-fifth of that amount. The book is making a tremendous and salesmen, because it is absolutely new and "has money in it." To get pleasant work and good pay, send for terms, circulars, &c., to J. B. FORD & CO., New York, Boston, Chicago, San Francisco, or Cincinnati. Nov12w4
